

Impact Information for Pupil Premium: April 2016- April 2017

Provision	Cost	Aims of spending	Impact
Contribution to residential trip - Belchamps	£600	Research by the Education Endowment Fund has shown that children can make up to +4 months progress when involved in outdoor adventure learning.	Children enjoyed the trip and developed their independence being away from home.
Payments towards swimming lessons	£470	Promotion of a fit a health lifestyle Provision of a crucial life skill Contributing to self-esteem	Children are fit and they meet the challenging expectations of swimming lessons. This shows perseverance and resilience.
Extra curricular clubs including netball, football, dance, tag rugby	£800	Promotion of a fit a health lifestyle Contributing to self-esteem	Children are fit and healthy, learning new skills outside of the classroom.
LAMDA speech and communication lessons	£600	Contributing to self-esteem Children have a voice and can speak up	Children are able to confidently perform to a wider audience. Children are prepared for the challenges of public speaking and beginning to learn the life skills needed for the world of work.
Music lessons	£1400	Provision of experiences children would not normally have access to	Children have developed a creative skill.
1:1 tuition	£500	Precision teaching to close specific individual gaps Increased confidence	Increased confidence and precision teaching mean that teaching is incredibly targeted to fill gaps. Children were prepared for the next stage in their learning and have a clear understanding of the requirements for end of KS2 assessments.
SATs booster tuition	£200	Precision teaching to close specific individual gaps Increased confidence	All PPG children reached expected standard in SPaG.
Extra curricular trips	£200	To provide a range of experiences children may not normally have the opportunity to access	Learning is brought alive, helping children
School meals	£3000	Children are nourished and have sustenance to learn.	Children are more focussed and ready to learn in the mornings
Breakfast club	£600	Children arrive in class on time	When attendance is regular children have a routine start to the morning, entering their class with fellow students, not causing a disruption by coming in late
Total	£8970		